- Raiding team's hotel bill stood at Rs. 1.20 lakh
- Businessmen taken to Chennai for questioning

The hotel in Kushalnagar where one of the I-T teams stayed.

Kushalnagar, Apr. 29- Income Tax (I-T) officials who raided the properties of SLN Group in and around Kushalnagar completed their operation yesterday evening and left for Chennai today.

The SLN Group is owned by coffee tycoons Vishwanathan and Sathappan and are said to be relatives of former Union Finance Minister P. Chidambaram.

The Income Tax team that arrived in Kushalnagar on Apr. 26 posing as a wedding party and their cars — numbering more than 50 — sported bouquets on bonnets and were decorated with flowers and with photos of bride and bridegrooms to mislead the Police and local people.

The raids on the Group that owned a couple of coffee processing units, plush houses, resorts, layouts and coffee estates lasted three days. Over 130 officials, assisted by the Mysuru Police, took part in the operation.

The raiding team was led by Assistant Director of Income Tax Department Sapna Kumar Chakraborty and I-T Inspector Sampath Kumar. According to sources, the I-T officials have unearthed ill-gotten assets worth more than Rs. 90 crore and have seized many property documents.

While some team members stayed at a few hotels and resorts in Kushalnagar, teams also stayed in the houses owned by brothers Vishwanathan and Sathappan. Sources said that those who stayed at the businessmen's houses ordered for food from outside. The team that stayed in hotels cleared a bill of Rs. 1.20 lakh yesterday night and vacated the rooms.

Sources said that both Vishwanathan and Sathappan have been taken to Chennai for further questioning. However, their family members who are in Kushalnagar claimed that the brothers had gone to Chennai for a 'family wedding' and would return on May 5.

Dividends of diversity in Democracy

Equality in public domain among the land's masses and liberty (to speak subject to certain universally acceptable conditions and act in a manner of not causing both physical and mental hurt to anybody as well as not violative of the land's laws) are unarguably features of orderly democracy. These features as well as orderliness of our democracy have currently got morphed into transforming its global image that one finds it embarrassing to talk about in circles of citizens entertaining dreams of reaping rich dividends while extolling diversity in the country's population on its social, economic, religious, linguistic, ethnic, cultural and other sides of human profile. The denizens of the forests too are marked with a set of diversities but they seem to be in a state of social equilibrium unlike us, the homosapiens.

Reading between the lines of copiously available ancient literature attributed to chroniclers, scholars, philosophers, social reformers, writers, both identified and anonymous (apourusheya such as the Vedas), one can reasonably infer that the country's generations of the distant past lived in a manner holding aloft the now-tom-tommed inclusiveness. Although we hear from many persons in public life calling for achieving an inclusive society, given the goings on in our times, less said about it the better.

Between the era of a distant past that the land witnessed life of people in perfect harmony, serving as a model for inclusive society and the present era bugged by both disrupted societal harmony and adrift in achieving an inclusive society, a lot of water has flowed as it were, prompting one to ponder over the factors behind this undesirable makeover. Knowledge of rocket science is not needed to become aware of the acts and attitudes of people occupying positions in the government from where they are wielding the evil influence on the masses, invariably in a state of disarray, disillusion and distress.

The debate on issues relevant to the task of achieving an inclusive society, a virtual pipe dream, in the face of both provisions in our democratic set up and wide diversity in the land's population, takes us to take a close look at how these factors have impacted a) productivity of the workforce and b) ambience in workplaces, particularly offices of administration, read government, telling on the nation losing valuable dividends of the democracy, marked by diversity without parallel in any other country worldwide.

EDITOR'S BOTTOMLINE

Should the spelling of food be changed to fad? Because – thanks to so-called wonder diets which will help you lose weight, protect you from everything from diabetes to dandruff and ensure you live to be a 100 years of age – food is increasingly becoming a fad. The latest food fad is the keto diet. According to this nutritional regimen, the more fat you eat, the more fat you'll lose. So forget all that killjoy advice doctors gave you about not eating butter and ghee, and fried things like French fries. Now you can pig out on all of these fatty foods till they're coming out of your ears. And the more of them you eat, the more weight you'll lose. There's one hitch. While you can eat as much fat as you like, you can't eat any cereals whatsoever. You can eat gobs of butter, minus the toast on which to spread it. The keto diet is only one of the many diets doing the rounds. There is the Atkins diet, which says you can eat as much protein – meat, eggs, fish, cheese, paneer – as you like but you must avoid all carbs like the plague. There's only one thing you can eat which is 100% calculated to make you lose weight. Get into an argument you know you'll lose. And let your opponent make you eat your words. — Jug Suraiya in The Times of India.

VOICE OF THE READER

Tribute to Prof. Dandapani, my teacher and colleague

Sir,

I met Dr. S. Dandapani in 1965 when I was a student of the Regional College of Education (renamed as the Regional Institute of Education), Mysore. To start with, my association with him was that of a student and teacher. He endeared himself very dearly to all his students with his clarity of thinking, depth of knowledge and pleasant demeanour. Words would flow easily through a sweet nasal sound. A towering personality – tall and thin, swaying as he spoke. His favourite topic then was psycho-analysis.

Within weeks of joining the College, a personal bondage was established as I shared a common interest – MUSIC. How can I forget the Music Club where we met every Saturday and innumerable songs we learnt and sang? Both of us were interested in Carnatic classical music and classical-based film songs. Fifty-one years later, I still remember two of his most favourite songs – T.M.Soundar Rajan's Oru naal poduma from Thiruvelliyadal and Rafi's Tu Ganga ke mouj mein ...baiju bawra. I was so much impressed by his rendering of these two songs, I would demand him sing these, along with others, like singing the National Anthem at the end of a function!

In his turn, he would order me to sing one of Rafi's songs from the same movie He duniya ke rakhwale along with a few other songs. Years later when I returned to Mysuru, I used to meet him in music concerts and would go nostalgic. My wife and I invited Dr. Dandapani to speak in our weekly Rotary meetings.

A pleasant person to deal with, rarely would you hear him raise his voice in anger either with students or colleagues. But once, just once, we saw him flare up against a very senior student, perhaps older than him, for something that irritated him in the class. That student probably exhibited a sense of ego and arrogance and Dandapani put him in his place. Yet, he was gracious enough to apologise to the student in the next class.

We were colleagues and worked together in our respective faculties enjoying cordiality and mutual respect. I was away from Mysore (1974 - 1995) when I lost touch with RIE. When I returned, all of my teachers and most of my contemporaries had either retired or left the world. Here is one such teacher who left us for his heavenly abode leaving us with just the memories. May his soul rest in peace.

BSY initiates move to unseat Eshwarappa as Council Opposition Leader

Yeddyurappa Eshwarappa

Bengaluru, Apr.29- Senior leader K.S. Eshwarappa's tirade against State BJP President B.S. Yeddyurappa (BSY) may cost him the post of Leader of Opposition in the Legislative Council.

A section of MLCs in the Yeddyurappa camp, including D.S. Veeraiah, B.J. Puttaswamy and Lehar Singh Siroya, are said to be working towards divesting Eshwarappa of the post he holds in the Council, which is of Cabinet rank. These MLCs are of the opinion that Eshwarappa is misusing his position by running a campaign against Yeddyurappa.

The MLCs are likely to petition State Party in-Charge Muralidhar Rao, Union Ministers from the State and the BJP National President seeking the ouster of Eshwarappa, who has launched a tirade against Yeddyurappa.

Meanwhile, Yeddyurappa landed in the National capital on Friday to complain against Eshwarappa. Yeddyurapp's intended meeting with BJP National President Amit Shah may not happen as Shah is set to leave for Jammu and Kashmir on a three-day visit.

As a result, Yeddyurappa is set to take up the issue with in-charge of the party affairs in Karnataka Muralidhar Rao and BJP National General Secretary (Organisation) Ramlal on Saturday.

Yeddyurappa, who is said to be carrying the CDs of the 'Save BJP Rally' organised by Eshwarappa group, is set to present a strong argument to expel Eshwarappa from the party. With this, he also wants to send a strong message to the dissidents.

"I will discuss the current scenario in the State BJP with my National leaders. I am keen to work unitedly with everyone in the party. But, a few leaders have crossed their limits," Yeddyurappa said and added that it is a bit early to talk about the consequences if they refuse to change.

Yeddyurappa further said that several party MLCs were unhappy with the conduct and speech made by Eshwarappa at the Convention held at Palace grounds on Thursday. On the other hand, Eshwarappa, who is working to exert pressure on the party High Command to rein in Yeddyurappa, is planning to hit back at BSY by organising a rally under the banner of Sangolli Rayanna Brigade in Mysuru.

The Brigade is likely to hold a Convention at Mysuru on May 18, for which BJP National President Amit Shah and Union Home Minister Rajnath Singh will be invited, according to sources.

Meanwhile, Eshwarappa is said to have performed Ashlesha Bali Puja along with his family members at his Malleshwaranagara residence in Shivamogga yesterday. Former MLC Bhanuprakash too took part in the rituals.

JD(U) seeks disqualification of Ambarish as MLA

Mandya, Apr. 29- JD(U) District President B.S. Gowda has filed a complaint to the Speaker K.B. Koliwad seeking disqualification of Mandya MLA M.H. Ambarish for staying away from his constituency and also for not attending the Assembly Sessions.

Gowda has stated that Ambarish had neglected the constituency ever since he was dropped from the Cabinet by CM Siddharamaiah. The JD(U) has also warned of launching a protest if Ambarish was not disqualified.

The petition has also mentioned that the people of Mandya did want a politician, who was not active in politics, as their representative. B.S. Gowda has also submitted a copy of the petition to Governor Vajubhai R. Vala's office. It may be recalled that CM Siddharamaiah had met Ambarish at his Bengaluru residence last week and pacified him not to quit the party. Sources said that BJP had approached the veteran actor with an invitation to join the saffron brigade.

Yeddyurappa sacks Computer Operator at BJP Office

Bengaluru, Apr. 29- BJP State President B.S. Yeddyurappa has sacked a Computer Operator, working in the party State Head quarters at Malleswaram in Bengaluru, who is said to be a close aide of RSS functionary B.L. Santosh.

The action comes a day after Yeddyurappa squarely blamed Santosh as the mastermind behind the rift in the State BJP.

Santosh is the BJP National Joint Secretary (Organisation).

The Computer Operator Mallikarjuna from Haveri district had provided logistical support for organising 'Save the Party,' Convention that was organised by K.S. Eshwarappa at Palace Grounds here on Thursday, according to sources.

Mallikarjuna, is said to have designed the banner for the Convention, used office phone to call Santosh's supporters to participate in the Convention and sent e-mail to workers providing information about the Convention.

After knowing this, Yeddyurappa called Mallikarjuna, pulled him up and sacked him, the sources added.

Nandini Chandrashekar is new Dist. Women Congress President

KPCC Women's Wing President Lakshmi Hebbalkar is seen handing over the party flag to former ZP Member Nandini Chandrashekar (in Mysuru peta), who took charge as the new District Women Congress President at a programme organised by the Mysuru District Congress Unit at Chikkammaniketana Kalyana Mantap in Kuvempunagar here on Thursday as MP R. Dhruvanarayan and others look on.

Mysuru, Apr. 29 (YDS&DM)- Former ZP Member Nandini Chandrashekar took charge as the new District Women Congress President at a programme organised by the Mysuru District Congress at Chikkammaniketana Kalyana Mantap in Kuvempunagar here on Thursday.

Speaking on the occasion, Chamarajanagar MP R. Dhruvanarayan appealed the Congress workers to work in unity for enabling the party to retain power in the 2018 General Assembly election.

Thanking the party workers' honest efforts in the Nanjangud and Gundlupet by-poll, Dhruvanarayan said that it was important to explain the people about the Congress Government's Welfare Schemes and development works in the last four years. Pointing out that women workers were always given due recognition in the Congress, the MP said that the Siddharamaiah Government's performance in the last four years helped the Congress to win the by-polls. Maintaining that the BJP lost the by-polls because of its non-performing Government at the Centre, the MP said that Congress President Sonia Gandhi was striving hard for organising women in all States.

MLA Vasu, in his address, said that the presence of more number of women in any Government or the party, will certainly given a boost to administration. Pointing out that the previous UPA Government was very much for women reservation, Vasu regretted that the Bill could not be passed due to the non-co-operation of the then Opposition parties. The MLA further said that the Congress would pass the Woman Reservation Bill if it was elected to power.

KPCC Women's Wing Vice-President Nagalakshmi appealed the Congress workers to ensure the defeat of Prime Minister Narendra Modi in the next election. Alleging that PM Modi was anti-women, anti-farmer and anti-people, Nagalakshmi said that CM Siddharamaiah was working overtime for the upliftment of economically-weaker sections in the society. KPCC Women's Wing President Lakshmi Hebbalkar, who also addressed the gathering, declared that former ZP President Dr. Pushpa Amarnath has been appointed as Secretary of KPCC Women's Wing.

Dist. Congress President Dr. Vijaykumar, MLC R. Dharmasena, MLA Geetha Mahadevaprasad, City Congress President R. Murthy, ZAK Chairperson Mallige Veeresh and former State Women's Commission Chairperson Manjula Manasa were present.

Cleanest City tag: Will it be a hat-trick for Mysuru this time?

Mysuru Apr. 29 (RK&BCT)- Will the heritage city of Mysuru bag the prestigious 'Cleanest City' in India title for 2016, the third time in a row? The city had bagged the award for two consecutive times earlier under the Swachh Bharat Abhiyan.

The award will be announced in the first week of May and officials from the Mysuru City Corporation have been invited to attend a ceremony on May 4, 2017, in New Delhi. This communication is usually sent to Mayor and the Commissioner of the three cleanest cities and the rankings are announced at the venue.

Yesterday evening, officials from the Union Urban Development Ministry telephoned MCC Commissioner G. Jagadeesha and invited him and Mayor M.J. Ravikumar for the New Delhi event.

The clean city survey was conducted in all the 65 wards by Quality Council of India in January this year. The five-member team had stayed in Mysuru for over a week and had conducted the survey and had also examined the city's waste management and disposal system.

Speaking to Star of Mysore, Jagadeesha said that the final ranking will be announced only at the time of presenting the award or a day before. The invitation to attend the function confirms that Mysuru is among the top contenders, he said.

This year, however, the competition for the Cleanest City award under Swachh Bharat Mission is tough as 500 cities and towns with a population of 1 lakh and above are vying for the top honours. This is in contrast to 73 cities with a population of 10 lakh and above that were surveyed in the previous years.

It may be mentioned here that Mysuru was the first city with a million-plus population to be declared as open defecation-free. The Quality Council of India authorities had surveyed a total of 75 cities across the country and shortlisted 53 cities with a population of over 10 lakh for evaluation.

"We have taken effective steps to bag the award for third time in a row through effective waste management solutions including segregating waste at source, construction of toilets and eliminating open air defecation. We hope that we will achieve a hat-trick this time," he added.

ABSS demands funds for Sri Ramanujacharya Jayanti

Mysuru, Apr. 29 - Akhanda Bharatha Seva Sena (ABSS) Founder-President Chethan Manjunath has condemned the step-motherly attitude of Siddhramaiah Government in celebrating the 1000th birth anniversary of Sri Ramanujacharya.

Addressing the press persons at Pathrakarthara Bhavan yesterday, he said that though Sri Ramanujacharya had fought against discrimination and upliftment of harijans, the State Government, which celebrates various Jayantis, had not released any funds for Ramanuja Jayanti and also for the 36ft tall statue which was installed at Kerethonnur on Apr. 25.

Stating that a mega convention on Sri Ramanuja was being organised on May 14 at Palace Grounds in Bengaluru, Chethan said that various events were being organised by Melukote Mutt with donations from devotees.

He also blamed the State Government for neglecting Melukote by not providing basic facilities though the temple town was attracting devotees in large numbers this year compared to previous years.

He said that the ABSS will submit a memorandum to Chief Minister Siddharamaiah through Deputy Commissioner D. Randeep demanding for the release of funds.

Grand Basava Jayanti celebrations

Suttur Seer Sri Shivarathri Deshikendra Swamiji, Jnanpith awardee Dr. Chandrashekar Kambara, MPs R. Dhruvanarayan and Pratap Simha and other dignitaries are seen offering floral tributes to the bust of Basaveshwara at Kalamandira this morning. Picture right shows a colourful procession of Basaveshwara that was taken out last evening.

Mysuru, Apr.29 (US&PM)- As part of the 3-day Basava Jayanti celebrations organised by the District Administration, Veerashaiva Associations and Federation of Basava Balagas, the Basaveshwara statue at Gun House Circle was garlanded by MP R. Dhruvanarayan, Deputy Commissioner D. Randeep, Assistant Commissioner C.L. Anand and other officers this morning.

Speaking on the occasion, Dhruvanarayan expressed happiness at the government's decision in having a portrait of Basavanna, the unparalleled social reformer, in every government office.

Stage programme

Later, a stage programme was held at Kalamandira here this morning. Suttur Seer Sri Shivarathri Deshikendra Swamiji launched the programme by garlanding the bust of Basaveshwara placed on the dais. Jnanpith awardee Dr. Chandrashekar Kambara, MPs Pratap Simha and R. Dhruvanarayan, Legislative Council Deputy Chairman Marithibbegowda, MLAs Vasu, M.K. Somashekar and G.T. Devegowda, Mayor M.J. Ravikumar, Deputy Mayor Rathna Lakshman, Deputy Commissioner D. Randeep, Mylac Chairman H.A. Venkatesh, ZAK Chairperson Mallige Veeresh and others offered floral tributes.

Delivering a special lecture, Dr. Kambara pointed out that Kannada literature could be comprehended better only with a good knowledge of vachana sahitya. He hailed Basavanna not only as a great social reformer but also a visionary and a poet who had all the qualities of able Statesmanship.

Stating that Basavanna's vachanas and thoughts had been incorporated in the curriculum of over 120 Universities in India and abroad, he added that vachana sahitya deals with feelings and problems of common people with eternal reference to society.

Unlike other Jayantis organised by the District Administration recently, today's programme had a good attendance at Kalamandira.

Colourful procession

Marking Basava Jayanti, a colourful procession was taken out last evening from Basaveshwara statue near Gun House Circle here.

Suttur Seer Sri Shivaratri Deshikendra Swamiji garlanded the statue of Basaveshwara and launched the procession which comprised folk troupes, Huli vesha and musical troupes. It passed through Chamaraja Double Road, Narayana Shastri road, Siddappa Square, Agrahara and back to the starting point. Students dressed as saints too participated in large numbers.

Call to hold Jayantis of all Basavadi Sharanas on Basava Jayanti Day

Mysuru, Apr. 29 (SP&DM)- Underlining the role of 12th century Shivasharanas in the social transformation of society, BJP leader Raghu Kautilya appealed the government to hold Jayantis of all Basavadi Sharanas on Basava Jayanti Day.

He was speaking after inaugurating Veera Madiwala Machidevara Jayanthotsava organised by Veera Madiwala Sangha at the Sangha office on Manasa road in Ittigegud here this morning.

Pointing out that Madiwala Machideva, a 12th century saint, was heroic and a loyal sharana, who valiantly fought against King Bijjala's army to protect manuscripts of vachanas written by the Sharanas, Raghu Kautilya said although the kayaka of Machideva was to wash clothes he advocated the importance of ishtalinga.

Noting that casteism was very much alive in the society despite the advances made in science and technology, he said that the vachanas of Basavadi Sharanas was relevant even today.

Regretting that Madiwalas are losing out their kayaka with the advent of science and technology, he urged the government to set aside funds for Madiwala community upliftment and to provide education and jobs to the community which has long been ignored.

Rajyotsava awardee Shyamasundar and other achievers from the community were feted.

Earlier, Veeragase and a host of other cultural troupes presented a performance.

Kannada and Culture Assistant Director H. Channappa, former Mayor Ayub Khan, Madiwala Sangha office-bearers Bhyrappa Kurubarahalli, Jogappa, M. Puttamahadev and Ramaswamy were present.

Abetting crime: Mandya Jail Superintendent suspended

Mandya, Apr. 29 (US&NG)- Mandya Jail Superintendent Satish, accused in abetting a crime by providing a cell-phone and other items to an inmate in jail, has been suspended. One Shiva was sentenced to imprisonment in the jail for allegedly involved in murdering an entrepreneur H.P. Nagendra. Satish was said to have helped Shiva by illegally providing him a cellphone, using which Shiva had reportedly plotted to kill one Kumar through a woman rowdy-sheeter Bhagya.

Mandya West Police on interrogating Bhagya and another Raghu learnt about the plot to kill Kumar.

SP Sudheer Kumar Reddy recently raided Mandya jail and learnt that Shiva was in procession of a cellphone, expensive cigarettes and chocolates and also observed that a few inmates were serving Shiva with obeisance. Consequently Shiva was shifted to Ballari jail.

Based on the report submitted by the SP, DGP (Prisons) suspended Satish, who has been replaced by Tumakuru Jail Superintendent Lokesh who assumed charge yesterday.

About 60 people, led by former Mayor Purushotham and MLA M.K. Indians to face Lions at Rajkot

Rajkot, Apr. 29- Gujarat Lions and Mumbai Indians will come up against each other in Match 35 of IPL 2017 at the Saurashtra Cricket Association Stadium in Rajkot later in the day. Gujarat Lions have three wins from eight matches, the most-recent of them against Royal Challengers Bangalore on Thursday night. The Lions had a largely forgettable first half of the tournament, winning just two of their first seven matches. But if they want to be contenders for one of the playoff spots, now is the time for the Lions to start stitching together a series of wins. The bowling department has been the team's Achilles heel, but in the previous match against RCB, the bowlers did exceptionally well to restrict a formidable RCB line-up to 134. Captain Suresh Raina expressed satisfaction that the team appeared to have found a combination that could compete.

The Mumbai Indians were on a roll before they were halted in pursuit of their 7th consecutive win by Rising Pune Supergiant. MI have had a 4-day break since that defeat in the Maharashtra Derby, and will look to retain their place in the top two.

Brendon McCullum, captain Suresh Raina and Aaron Finch, who recently demolished the RCB bowlers, will be central to the Gujarat Lions' batting plans. Nitish Rana is the Mumbai Indians' highest run-getter; the left-hander, dismissed for single-digit scores in his last two innings, will be keen to get back among the runs. MI will also be delighted that Rohit Sharma has found form; after a slow start to the tournament, the MI captain struck a fluent 58 in the previous match against RPS.

WORD OF THE DAY

Slough

Pronunciation: SLUFF
Meaning: To cast off or become cast off; to crumble slowly and fall away; to get rid of or discard as irksome, objectionable, or disadvantageous.
Origin: There are two verbs spelled slough in English, as well as two nouns, and both sets have different pronunciations. The first noun, referring to a swamp or a discouraged state of mind, is pronounced to rhyme with either blue or cow; it derives from Old English slōh, which is akin to a Middle High German slouche, meaning "ditch." Its related verb, which can mean "to plod through mud," has the same pronunciation. The second noun, pronounced to rhyme with cuff, refers to the shed skin of a snake (as well as anything else that has been cast off). Its related verb describes the action of shedding or eliminating something. This slough derives from Middle English slughe and is distantly related to slūch, a Middle High German word meaning "snakeskin."

PHRASE OF THE DAY

Butter wouldn't melt in his mouth

Meaning: Prim and proper, with a cool demeanour.

Origin: The allusion in this expression is to people who maintain such a cool demean or that they don't even have the warmth to melt butter. This is an old phrase - here's a citation from 1530, in Jehan Palsgrave's Lesclarcissement de la langue françoyse:
"He maketh as thoughe butter wolde nat melte in his mouthe."
The phrase is usually used in a derogatory and critical sense and, in the past at least, was most often applied to women. Occasionally, it was used to denote a quiet meekness and sweetness of temper rather than emotional coldness; for example, this description of Mr Pecksniff in Charles Dickens' Martin Chuzzlewit:
"It would be no description of Mr Pecksniff's gentleness of manner to adopt the common parlance, and say that he looked at this moment as if butter wouldn't melt in his mouth. He rather looked as if any quantity of butter might have been made out of him, by churning the milk of human kindness, as it spouted upwards from his heart."

QUOTE BOX

Calm mind brings inner strength and self-confidence, so that's very important for good health. —Dalai Lama
